What they say...

"Nick is always willing to help/teach me when I have questions or need assistance. He's always calm and collected and never loses his cool. Instead he looks for ways to solve problems or variable changes that come up on a job site. He's fun and nice to work with and easy to get along with. Most of all he's a damn machine, he's good at what he does and pumps out bids like hot cakes."

"Nick is such a huge help to me and has guided me along the way. His knowledge is awesome. He is a team player that is always willing to do whatever it takes."

"Nick is very dedicated to his job and never sweats under pressure. He is an easy going, fun guy to be around who makes his job look easy."

"Nick has great relationships and respect with our customers and is an excellent representation of TR Construction. Very proud to have him on our team!!"

"Nick has been an asset to TR Construction since his return. He continues to develop as an excellent estimator and project manager. His experience working for 10 years as an estimator at a large General Contractor is invaluable in performing his daily work requirements for TR Construction. Nick has always been a team player and doesn't hesitate to jump in and help his colleagues, whether it be helping with a takeoff for an estimate someone else is doing, looking over details and making sure our scope is covered, being onsite during concrete pours to help back trucks in, or performing field work to make sure the job requirements are complete. With his "Get 'Er' Done" attitude, I can rely on him to take care of what he needs to and support the company in any way he can. It is a pleasure working with him every day, and his attitude, even when it's crunch time on an estimate so we can "SEND IT", putting up plastic over a 600CY pour in a torrential rain storm and getting soaked, or being onsite at 430AM to make sure the crews are ready for a big pour, is always appreciated."

"Nick is very organized. He has a positive attitude on the job. His work ethic makes me proud. Not only is he my son and I am so fortunate to be able to work for him but he is so wonderful to work with."

Welcome!
